

Volunteer Overview

Representing Diabetes Dayton at agency and wellness events in our community.

General Agency Information

We have been a 501 (c)3 non-profit agency since 1963.

Mission: Diabetes Dayton is dedicated to the assistance and support of individuals affected by diabetes.

How are we unique?

- We are a local agency serving local needs. All monies raised or donated stay here to benefit families in the Miami Valley.
- We are independent; there is no affiliation or funding from other diabetes organizations.
- More detailed information is available on our website: www.diabetesdayton.org

What services are offered by Diabetes Dayton?

- Free Diabetes Education Classes
 - A 2-part series offered monthly
- Diabetes Emergency Supply Assistance Program (DESAP) for the uninsured
- Diabetes camp for kids: Camp Ko-Man-She for children with Type 1 diabetes and Camp Tiponi for children with or at risk for Type 2 diabetes.
- Support Group
- Prevention Program
- Cooking Classes
- Annual Diabetes Expo
- Resource assistance

How do I prepare?

- Pick up booth materials prior to event.
- Read over the provided literature to familiarize yourself with the topics.
- Ensure you have directions to the event location and any related special instructions.
- Arrive 15 minutes early to the event to allow for booth set-up prior to public arriving.

Why I am at this event?

- To raise awareness about diabetes and the services Diabetes Dayton offers.

What do I wear?

- Business casual or business attire and a friendly smile!

What to Avoid

- Giving medical or nutritional advice in any form. Please refer people to the Resource Guide provided for options to answer their questions. Our free Classes are also a great referral source for specific questions.
- Guessing at the answer to a question. Please record the question and the contact information from the person asking and let a staff member at Diabetes Dayton provide the follow-up.
